MISCELLANEOUS!

Purify! Purify! Spring and Summer Medicines! Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

OF all the remedies that have been discovered during the present age for the "thousand dist hat flesh is heir to," none equal this wonderful preparation. Only three years have elapsed since the discoverer (who spent a decae in studying, experimentalizate and perfecting, it) first itroduced it to the public, and it is already recognized by the most eminent physicians in all parts of the country to be the most surprising and effective remedy for certain diseases of which they have knowledge.

All other compounds or syrups of the root have hitherto failed to command the sanction of the faculty, because, on being tested, they have been found to contain noxious ingredients, which naturalize the good effects of the Sansaparilla, and oftentimes injure the health of the patient. It is not so with Hurley's preparation.

This is the pure and genuine extract of the root, and will on trial, be found to effect a certain and perfect cure of the following complaints and disenses: , be found to effect a cong complaints and dise tions of the Bones, Habitual Costiveness, s of the Kidneys, in Indigestion, Liver Complaints, Liver Complaints, Piles, Pulmonary Diseases, Scroula, or King's Evil, Skin Diseases. Pistuda. Skin Diseases.

And all Skin Diseases.

Besides curing the above, it is also known to be a greated powerful fonce, purifying a bod and invigorating the system.

In short, it is without exception, in the cases mentioner and its general effect on the system, the most efficacious as it is the most desirable, remedy of the age. It is already estremisted y used throughout the country, and is fast obtaining an European reputation. The instances of cures that the first desirable country is the proprietors knowledged that the case of cures is the proprietor in the proprietors knowledged that the proprietors knowledged the proprietors knowledged that the proprietors knowledged the propri

Know-Nothing Exhibition in New York-Effect of Mr. Fillmore's ar rival on his Party.

Contrary to expectations, it is evident that the arrival of Mr. Fillmore in New York, has infused it comes to the final count of votes. a considerable degree of vitality into his party, which has taken the first opportunity to signally vindicate its attachment to first principles, and to make unquestionable its title to be regarded of fine talents and acquirements and will make as the fragment of the original party possessing unimpaired its "distinguishing characteristics." It will be recollected that some days since Mr. mont, drawing with him a portion of the rank old fashioned style. Mr. Van Riper approach. laws with judgement and skill. ed the chair, when, says the New York Times' report, "a violent shout of execration was raised," and there were loud cries for the Vice President to take the chair. Mr. Van Riper wished to explain his position, but was greeted with cheers for Fillmore and groans for Fremont .--There were ferocious cries of "traitor," "drag er, of which a graphic account is given in another him out," "down with him," "gouge him," and hideous groaning. The Vice President, a Know-Nothing named Stokely, acted as Chairman at the call of the ruffians. We clip the following from the Herald's report:

The Chairman thumped vigorously upon the desk, and besought the persons to come to order, and bear Mr. Van Riper. A Voice-I ask if Mr. Van Riper did not say in the Park, last Saturday evening, that he would sell the National Club Mr. Van Riper—No, sir. Loud Voice—You lie. You told Mr. Sparks if any party wanted to buy the Club, they could have it by paying for it.

Mr. Van Riper—You are a d—d liar.

A gentleman here moved that Mr. Van Riper be allowed to go on with his explanation without continued interruptions.

The motion was put and carried, upon which Van Riper proceeded with his explanation, as follows : the utmost diligence and fidelity. views changed for the slavery question, and I asked permission of the Know Nothing Council to which I belonged to withdraw. (Voice-"Traitor!" and cheers.) My card of withdrawal was granted. (Tremendous cheers, and 'They were glad to get rid of you." I applied directly to the Secretary of this Club, and told him I wanted a list of the names of the

to call this meeting that I might give to the members of the Club the choice of going with me or not, as they saw fit. A Voice-He has said enough, put him out. A repetition of previous hisses and groans followed for some minutes. By importunings of order from the Chairman, they at length ceased. Mr. Van Riper, resuming-You are a national Club, and will grant freedom of speech.

A Voice—Who licked you to-day?
Mr. Van Riper—Will you allow me to go on? proached. Hear me, and then you can pass judgment on Another Voice-He is a spy and a thief. Chairman—Gentlemen, please hear him. Mr. Van Riper—I intended to have notified day night's meeting.

A Voice—You lie it is no such thing. Mr. Van Riper-You are bound to meet me

A Voice-You need'nt go on; but the sooner you go out of the room the better.

restored at length partial quiet.

Mr. Van Riper, continuing—I ask, caunot a person change his views? I insist that I have acted only upon a change of my views.

A Voice—You acted for money.

Another Voice-Let's put the d-d traitor Mr. Vanderpool of the Fifteenth Ward, ther jumped upon the reporter's table, elbowing Mr. Duganne off. He offered a resolution of his own to the effect that Mr. Van Riper should be ex-pelled from the room. Mr. Van Riper, he said, had been paid $1,000 down to sell the Club to siville have elected as City Printers for the en-Fremont, and had another $1,000 promised him. Mr. Van Riper (with indignation)-I brand that man as an atrocious liar.

The ruffians could stand no more. Those near the platform leaped upon it, making for Mr. Van Riper with doubled fists and fingers prepared for eye-gouging. The reporters' table was overturned. The Presiden't desk was upset .-The howl, as' of a den of ferocious beasts, scared honest people many blocks off. The gas was put out. Mr. Van Riper had some strong friends near him, who aided his escape. There was a general free fight. The gas being re-lighted, they rushed in every direction for Van Riper. They searched ante-rooms and private closets. They hooted, hissed, and behaved only as indecent dogs could behave. Mr. Van Riper escaped them, and they formed in procession, and with shouts and oaths, marched to the St. Nicholas Hotel, and after considerable cheering, succeeded in bringing out Mr. Fillmore, who said-FELLOW CITIZENS: I am told that this is the famous American Club which has been sold out.

St. Louis, June 26. A company of 75 to 80 men from Chicago, who recently left Alton for Kansas on steamer Polar Star, had their Sharpe's rifles and revolvers taken from them at Lexington, Mo. It is said they were very insolent on board the boat and made threats of what they would do in certain contingencies. No violence was offered them. A report says that Shannon has resigned his office of Governer, to take effect the 1st of July The Republican intimates that if Willard P. Hall of Mo., be appointed to that office peace will be restored in that Territory in thirty days. There was a report at Westport that Brown, the editor of the Herald of Freedom, had been

Political Deception Exposed. Some time ago Pope Swigert & Co. issued their royal mandate to all their willing and unwilling vassals in all the Judicial Districts in Kentucky, calling on them and commanding them to hold conventions to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Prosecuting Attorney for their respective Districts. In all those Districts in which the devotees of "Sam" were the majority, the command was at once obeyed with alacrity and delight; but unfortunately for them, in some Districts, after all the jerrymandering of last winter, they were still in the minority. There they were in a fix, and something must be done to prop up and save a sinking cause. They were not long in determining what expedient they would fall upon, which was to hold no convention in those Districts in which they were in the minority, but to get out certain Know Nothings, privately, for all the offices, and let them go out and proclaim that they are no party candidates; and cry aloud against making a party race for Judicial offices, and declare those who did so guilty of an unpardonable political sin. This is especially true of the Eighth District.

as we very well know; and some men are candidates in that District, who, if we are to believe what they preach, have long since passed their day of grace, and will now find no room for rethough they sock it carefully with tears.

In the little town of Carrollton, Ky., which does not contain one thousand inhabitants, there must of course be a "council;" and there is one, and the candidate for Judge opposed to Elijah dates for the county offices. In the spring of 1855, the "council" nominated candidates for all the little offices-such as Police Judge, town Marshal, Justices, and town Trustees; and the "no party" men of this day made the election of those petty officers a party affair, and voted for them almost, if not to a man; and no man can show by the record of their votes, any instance in which they have voted for a man who was not of their party since they took the first oath in that secret cabilistic clan, and they cannot vote for a man who is not of their order, without 'Laving perjury to their souls." These are the men who now cry out "No party race.", "Beware of the religion which the white man One way he act, another way he preach.' At the before mentioned spring election in Car-ollton, in 1855, Judge Pryor, who is now upon the stump, was there, and voted the Know Nothing ticket for the little offices before mentioned. THEN he made the election of those insignificant officers a party matter; now he would not be a party candidate-is no party man, &c.

We will tell you, reader, how this change came over the spirit of his dreams, and what has pro-In Carrollton and, as they supposed, duced it. in the county, the K. N.'s had a large majority ture is spotted and spoiled, your dresses are bedaubed and soiled, and if the balsam stays between the glasses, it is soiled, and if the balsam stays between the glasses, it is there is a majority in the county, and knows there is not in the district, and he wants to be will give the reader a good anecdote, or story, of our candidate for the judgeship, and then close. There is at Carrollton a certain Democrat, " man of good report," who, like all other men of correct thoughts, has a strong aversion to Know Nothingism, whose name is John Bradman. This same John Bradman went to the courthouse on the day of the before-mentioned spring election of 1855, to cast his vote on the right side for justices, police judge, marshal of the town and trustees, and on his way fell in with Judge Pryor, who bantered Bradman to vote as he did. At that time Know Nothingism was all a profound secret. Neither the members of the order nor candidates were known to outsiders. Bradman supposed it almost impossible that the Judge could be a member of that fraternity, and upon receiving the before-mentioned proposition from him, said, "Well, Judge, I believe I will do so, for I do not want to vote for Know Nothings, and I do not believe you are one;" so they went together, and the Judge voted for his party (being then a party man) and Bradman followed suit, and voted the same ticket, the Know Nothings all around laughing and inflexible Democrat had been deceived and induced to vote for their candidates. On the foregoing we forbear comment. What we have said is well known here, and Bradman himself still lives, and will not withhold the truth from any inquirer. Can it be possible that any man of common rationality will be deceived by this cry of "No party race for judicial offices?" Are not justices of the page judicial officers? and was not our no-party candidate on the other side of the question in the prince of 1955. tion in the spring of 1855?

Pryor was last elected, hundreds of Democrats were among his ardent supporters; but the Know Nothings compelled them either to vote for candidates forced upon them by covered to the supporters and the supporters of the supporters of the supporters are the supporters of the supporte for candidates forced upon them by conventions in which they were not represented, and by a yarty whose meetings the could not attend, or to get out a candidate of their own; and still they ire condemped for making a party race for judicial offices. One thing we know, the Democsats did not have a ticket for the little offices here in 1855, nor untill driven to it by the Know Noth-A LOOKER-ON.

Spring and Summer Medicines! Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

OF all the remedies that have been discovered during the present age for the "housand ills that flesh is her to," none equal the wonderful preparation. Only three years have elapsed since the discoverer (who spent a decae in studying, experimentalizing and perfecting it) first itroduced it to the public, and it is already recognized by the most eminent physicians in all parts of the country to be the most surprising and effective remedy for certain diseases of which they have knowledge.

All other compounds or syrips of the root's ve hitherto failed to gommand the sanction of the faculty, occause, on being tested, they have been found to contain noxious ingredients, which naturalize the good effects of the Sarsaparilla, an leftentimes injure the health of the patient. It is not so with Hurley's preparation.

This is the pure and genuine extract of the root, and will on trial, be found to effect a certain and perfect cure of the following complaints and diseases:

Affections of the Bones, Habitual Costiveness, Debilty, Indigestion, Baltimore Tebacco Market.

BALTIMORE, June 21, M. change of moment is noticeable in the Tobacco mar The demand for Maryland continues very active, and t reaches the market finds ready sale at full prices,— in the past few days the demand for the very common all that reaches the market finds ready sale at full prices, Within the past few days the demand for the very common qualities appeared to slacken a little, but there is none left on the market. We continue to quote: Inferior short seconds $4 Jo@5; common s5@6; middling to brown $5 5@7; and brown leafy $75 2@9. Bay Tobacco from the upper parts of Maryland continues to arrive freely, and purchasers take all that is offered. We quote this at $8@9; seconds $3@11; good reds $1@015; spangled $14@20; and yellow $20@30. The receipts of Ohio are large, and the active demand clears the market daily of the active receipts.—Although we quote the lowest range for common quality at $650, it s to be remarked that it is very difficult to find a hogshead which sells for less than $6 75. We quote: Inferior to good common $6@5 50; middling brown to good reds $7.00% good and fine reds $8@9; fine red cigar wrappers $9 $9.21; common to midding good spangled $7.50@8 50; good to fine spangled and yellow $10@12; and fine yellow $15@, $18. Dr.King's Dispensary,

Dk. A. KING, a practitioner of New York for the la 28 years, has opened a Dispensary on Market stree between First and Second, nearly opposite the Bowle House, for the treatment of Frivate Diseases, such a Gor orrhea, Syphilhis, and all diseases of the skin and other strangements growing out of neglect or imperfect cure, long experience and success mable him to act with non determined the strength of the streng and every vestage of the ameutines perferectly eradicated from their constitutions.

Strictures of old or recent date effectually cured in a few days by an operation which causes no pain. Where a stricture exists, general derangement of the whole constitution must easue, a continuance of which will bring on a train of sympy must be deteaded, and will undermine the constitution as cause premature old age.

Seminal Wanning and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on, in many cases, by the destructive habits of inconsiderate youth, and excessive indulgence of the passions, which undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unit for either business, or society, and causing premature old age.

His skeeess in curing all those of the above difficulty, with the exception of a few, of the many hundred patients who have come under his care during the last thirty years of his practice enables him effectually to restore to health such eases as have been considered incurable. On the contrary, all those who from neglect or improper treatment, nied only expect a train of symptoms to follow the effect of which will end in their complete destruction.

Also, all those who are afflicted with any of the following diseases need not despair of being cured. Erysipelas, Scrottla or Kings. Evit, White Swellings, Cancer, Salt Rheum or Tetter, Scald Head; in fact all diseases arising from impunities of the blood.
